To protect the social welfare of Iowans through coalition building, outreach education, research, and advocacy, and to promote public policies that bring social, economic, environmental and racial justice to all Iowans.

Part III - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Coalition Building
Built and promoted Iowa Citizen Action Network as a coalition, and brought in new affiliates. Continued on strategic plan including progress towards three year goal and objectives for member engagement, affiliate recruitment, and program priorities.

Outreach
Developed and distributed materials to encourage people to register to vote and to turn out to the polls on Election Day. Held annual Leadership Assembly to educate members and affiliates in the areas of health care, power building and voter engagement.

Education
Organized press events, rallies and meetings to promote public understanding of the issues involved with agriculture, energy, health care and voter engagement. Distributed fact sheets and email alerts to thousands of Iowans on the same issues through a phone and door-to-door canvass, as well as public meetings and forums. Maintained an organizational web site.

Research
Released several reports on prescription drugs and health care, voter engagement, energy policy and tax reform. Conducted research on worldview and power analysis. Analyzed public policy on these various topics.

Advocacy
Conducted campaigns to promote prescription drug coverage for seniors and people with disabilities, voter engagement and civic participation, comprehensive energy policy, and sustainable agriculture issues. Conducted both grassroots and direct lobbying with members and affiliates.
